

EVA St. CLAIR

2 Noyes Court | Silver Spring, Maryland | 20910
eva.stclair@gmail.com | 415 446 8079

EDUCATION

Stanford University, 2003. B.A. History - Medieval; minors in Classics (Latin) and Religious Studies. Phi Beta Kappa, Honors, with Distinction. Coursework in Latin, medieval philosophy, HTML and JavaScript. Senior Honors Thesis published: "Algazel on the Soul: A Critical Edition," Traditio 60 (2005) 47-84.

Fulbright Study at Universitaet Erfurt, 2004-05, Medieval History. Coursework in same plus Classical studies and German language (no degree pursued).

EXPERIENCE

2013-Present Web Editor, Richard Rufus of Cornwall Project, Indiana University, IN

Manage website and online files for RRP; update design and usability features; edit HTML, XML, CSS, JavaScript files. Administer mirror site at Stanford University.

2006-Present Project Coordinator, "Bartholomew's World," Stanford University, CA

Design, build, & edit website that offers documents related to medieval philosophy & science. Program games and exercises for young students of Latin. Coordinate submission of scholarly articles for use on site and in teaching materials. Write and distribute lesson plans related to materials hosted on site. Use of skills in PHP, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Flash.

2010-2011 Freelance Web Design and Editing, Silver Spring, MD

Design and build HTML/CSS sites for various small businesses.

2006-2011 Web Editor, UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Berkeley, CA

Manage and expand site with objectives of recruiting students, attracting donors, and providing research support in an academic environment. Program online research apprenticeship application system. Skills: PHP, HTML, CSS, XML, JavaScript, Flash, Photoshop, InDesign.

RELEVANT SKILLS

Web Programming

HTML: thorough knowledge

CSS: thorough knowledge

JavaScript: thorough knowledge, plus familiarity with jQuery library

PHP: thorough knowledge, including programming for MySQL databases

XML: familiarity

Adobe Dreamweaver: thorough knowledge

Adobe Flash: familiarity

Adobe Photoshop: familiarity

Languages

Latin: fluent reading comprehension